Direct measurements from the saved JSON

Query-specific data are substantially more focused and evidence-complete; direct evidence use alone did not improve the older downstream gate.

A–B: percentages computed directly from saved questions and BABILong support annotations; no answer labels used. C: older v18 partial development gate; it used the previous guided data, not v3. Current v26 TracIn result: 1/160 raw cases; no performance claim